We are recruiting!

About you

You will have a flexible approach, be experienced in providing high quality frontline support to victims of domestic abuse (DVA), and delivering a proactive service to those at high risk to meet their identified needs. You will have experience of working collaboratively within a multiagency framework including; MARAC partners, Children and Adult Safeguarding services, local partners and community projects to establish a multi-agency response to domestic abuse. The post holder will support victims through the Criminal and Civil Justice System prior to, during and after court hearings; ensuring they are supported and informed of legal options.

About us

Calan DVS is a domestic abuse charity in Wales, we are committed to working in partnership to end domestic violence and abuse. Our staff are passionate about what they do and deliver much needed services to support some of the most vulnerable people in society. We cover a large and varied geographical area, providing services across Bridgend, Neath Port Talbot, South Powys and Ammanford (Carmarthenshire).

Our service model ranges from core domestic violence services including refuge for female victims and their children, support in the community and crisis drop-in services for female and male victims, recovery programmes for all victims of domestic abuse, trauma informed family programmes and support for children and young people exposed to domestic violence and abuse (DVA).

It is a fundamental principle of Calan DVS that no person should be discriminated against by reason of race, religion, beliefs, national origin, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, disability, marriage and civil partnership and pregnancy and maternity, in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
